

"You shall serve the Lord your God only; then I will bless you with food and with water, and I will take away sickness from among you. There will be no miscarriages nor barrenness throughout your land, and you will live out the full quota of the days of your life [fulfilled]." Exodus 23:25-26, Living Bible

THE PROMISE: EMPTINESS IS NONEXISTENT IN THE KINGDOM OF GOD

Isaiah 55:10-11 imparts an image of the kingdom of God on earth operating just like heaven functions. God's vows to us are based on the strength of his own Word; it never returns to him unfulfilled. "For as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater: So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it." As we receive his promise as the incorruptible seed that lives and abides forever, all doubt, fear, and/or unbelief are dug out. Then room is made for our breakthrough faith; it makes demands on the harvest, no matter if we are a producer and/or a consumer. God's word—settled in heaven—is the holy seed that impregnates any breach. How much of God's word will you contain to ensure blight cannot rule in your world?

THE PROVISION: TOO FULL TO ADD ANYTHING ELSE

Jesus' earthly ministry showcases his all-inclusive surrender to God's every command: he always did what he saw God do and he always said what he heard God say. That's why he had Holy Spirit without measure. To complete his assignment, Jesus discovered himself in scriptures like Isaiah 61:1-2 which illuminates an indelible picture of his influence. In fact, Luke 4:17-21 parallels Jesus' reality of that text. "And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophet Esaias [Isaiah]. And when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written, The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, To preach the acceptable year of the Lord. And he closed the book, and he gave it again to the minister, and sat down. And the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened on him. And he began to say unto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears." Fulfilled in Greek is plērōō. It means to make replete, (lit.) to cram (a net); level up (a hollow); (fig.) to furnish; satisfy; execute an office; or verify a prediction. It's believed Jesus rested in the high priest's chair, which roused the synagogue crowd. But Jesus demonstrated Holy Spirit alone qualified him with miraculous power to represent God to man and man to God, extinguishing other levels of synthetic ceilings, curbs, checks, and/or controls.

THE PROBLEM: NEVER LEAVE A LEAK UNCOVERED

Luke 5:1-10 records fishermen washing their nets after toiling all night. After Jesus borrowed Simon's boat to teach the crowd, he rewarded Simon with his word, "Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught." Rebelling like a pro, Peter retorted, "we toiled all the night and have taken nothing: nevertheless at thy word I will let down the net." They caught a net-breaking multitude of fishes. Seeking his partners' help, both ships began to sink. Simon fell on his knees and asked Jesus to forgive him for his self-ruling mistrust. Unforgiveness breaks nets and sinks ships, but God's pardon expunges all offenses. Holy Spirit gently guides us through irreconcilable differences, bringing resolution miraculously.

THE PREMIUM: BREAKTHROUGH FAITH WITHOUT ANY BREACH

In John 21:1-14, some of the disciples hopelessly returned to their fishing careers after Jesus died. Once again, they caught nothing after fishing all night. This time, Jesus stood on the shore and asked "have ye any meat?" To their reply no, Jesus said, "cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find." Without a shadow of doubt, they caught 153 great fishes, [too much to draw the net, so they had to drag it to shore—this time their net did not break]. Confirmed it was Jesus, Simon swam to shore to find broiled fish and bread prepared. Jesus repairs potential breaches in your net, so you won't lose what you labored to receive. Also his supernatural favor—profusely abounding yield that produces Sabbath rest—supersedes any catch of the day. Shifted from your labor to his favor to make time to be a fisher of men.

Thought for Transformation

In John 10:10 (AMP), Jesus deposited absolute truth so the disciples' perception would remain accurate. "The thief comes only in order to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have and enjoy life, and have it in abundance (to the full, till it overflows)." Never accept role reversals. Evil is satan's sole purpose; however, he doesn't have to get away with demonic pursuits. Jesus outclassed satan by overcoming evil for your good.

Loaded, yet Unbroken

Nonstop overflow is promised; every layer healed—wounds inflicted by others or ourselves—make that possible. Ignored, contents are lost. 1) Cleanse landfills with Jesus' blood; 2) Cure toxic waste cavities by God's Word; and 3) Change the infill with Holy Spirit. Luke 6:37-38 (VOICE) gives the priority to live within the circle of blessing. "If you don't want to be judged, don't judge. If you don't want to be condemned, don't condemn. If you want to be forgiven, forgive. Don't hold back—give freely; you'll have plenty poured back into your lap—a good measure, pressed down, shaken together, brimming over. You'll receive in the same measure you give." The releasing lifestyle restores you to run weightlessly.
